EDITORIAL NOTES.

Fruit trees are putting out their leaves in many parts of the State.

E. J. Kennedy, Esq., has retired from the editorial management of the Chester-field Advertiser. He is succeeded by Mr. Nov'br 30 D. M. Barentine.

A section of the Salvation Army, under command of Lieut, Newton, will commence operations in Columbia on the

An earthquake shock was felt in Indiana and Illinois on the 6th. No damage

A tremendous ice gorge and flood has done much damage at Port De-

The citizens of Marion have voted the special tax for the establishment of the graded schools.

Henry Ward Beecher says there is going to be an earthquake in Europe that will split her from top to bottom...

Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, the President's sister, is to be married in April next. A Presbyterian minister is the bridegroom elect.

N. F. Evins, familiarly known as "Dad" Evins, of Spartanburg, and one of the oldest printers in the State, died January 28th.

The proposed Constitutional amendment allowing women to vote was overwhelmingly defeated in the United States Senate.

Ex-Governor Bate, Democrat, has been elected to the United States Senate from Tennessee.

The Cashier of the Germania Savings Bank of New York has skipped to Canada with $30,000.

Messrs, R. W. Boyd and Geo. W. Brown, of Darlington, have formed a copartnership for the practice of law.

A correspondent of the News and Courier writes that the beef used in the Asylum at Columbia, is a disgrace to our State.

Associate Justice Thomas S. Ashe of the Supreme Court of North Caro Dec. 14, lina, died at his home at Wadesboro on the 4th inst, he was in his 77th year.

A portrait of Mrs Cleveland, "lifesize and wonderfully life-like," now winning much admiration and com-ment, is by Albert Guerry, of South Carolina

The many friends of Judge Aldrich will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the effects of the injuries received by a fall going down his door steps.

A young cyclone passed through Pickens and Greenville Counties a few days ago, destroying one residence, a negro church, a store and a blacksmith shop, and fences and chimneys too numerous to mention.

Capt. J. Y. McFall, clerk of the No. 417 in favor of Tom Frasier Court of Newberry county, died on the 2nd inst. He was a gallant soldier in the late war, and in that service lost an eye. He was about sixty years old, and leaves a widow and four children.

There is a clean victory for the Democrats in Indiana in the election of Judge Turpie as United States Senator, to succeed Mr. Harrison, Republican, which brings to a pleasant close an arduous struggle that at one time seemed to be incapable of lawful and peaceful settlement.

Dispatches from places in Montana, Dakota and other points along the Northern Pacific Road report that the continued succession of blizzards and deep snow has been disastrous to every interest in those localities. Heavy mortality among cattle has been caused by the severe cold and starvation.

Disastrous floods are reported in Ohio, Cincinnati, on the 4th, was overflowed in the lower portions of the city, and nearly all the railroads lending to it have to discharge passengers in the suburbs as the trains cannot get to the depots.

Holiness Association.

The Executive Committee of the South Carolina Holiness Association is now ready to entertain invitations from Pastors in South Carolina to hold the regular Spring meeting of the Association at any church under their charge. In extending an invi-tation, please state exact time that Nov. 30. would be most convenient for the church and congregation. The meeting will probably be held some time during May. By order of the Executive Committee.

R. M. Anderson, Secretary.

ALL THE FOOLS NOT DEAD YET.

Sensational Suicide.

KNOXVILLE, TEEN., February 1.—Dr. Matt. Alexander committed suicide this alternoon by taking five grains of morphine. He was one of the leading physicians of Knoxville, but had recently been dissipated. He left a note saying, "I die with malice toward none. I go to hell. Tell my son to go to heaven." Dr. Alexander was a member of the board of examining surgeons of the Pensions Department.
